

2020/21 Housing Options in Bend:

- Cottage Community or Condo/Townhouse style
- 2 bedroom*
- Limited availability of 3-4 bedroom homes
- 99-year land lease with lower property taxes

2020/21 Housing Options in Redmond:

- 2 or 3 bedroom
- Single family detached home
- Likely 99-year land-lease model

*House size determined by household size at time of application

Habitat homes are Earth Advantage Certified. An Earth Advantage-certified house incorporates design elements, systems and materials that create superior indoor air quality, use natural resources responsibly, protect land, and lower water usage.

Bend-Redmond
Habitat
for Humanity®
541.385.5387 | brhabitat.org

Updated 1-14-20

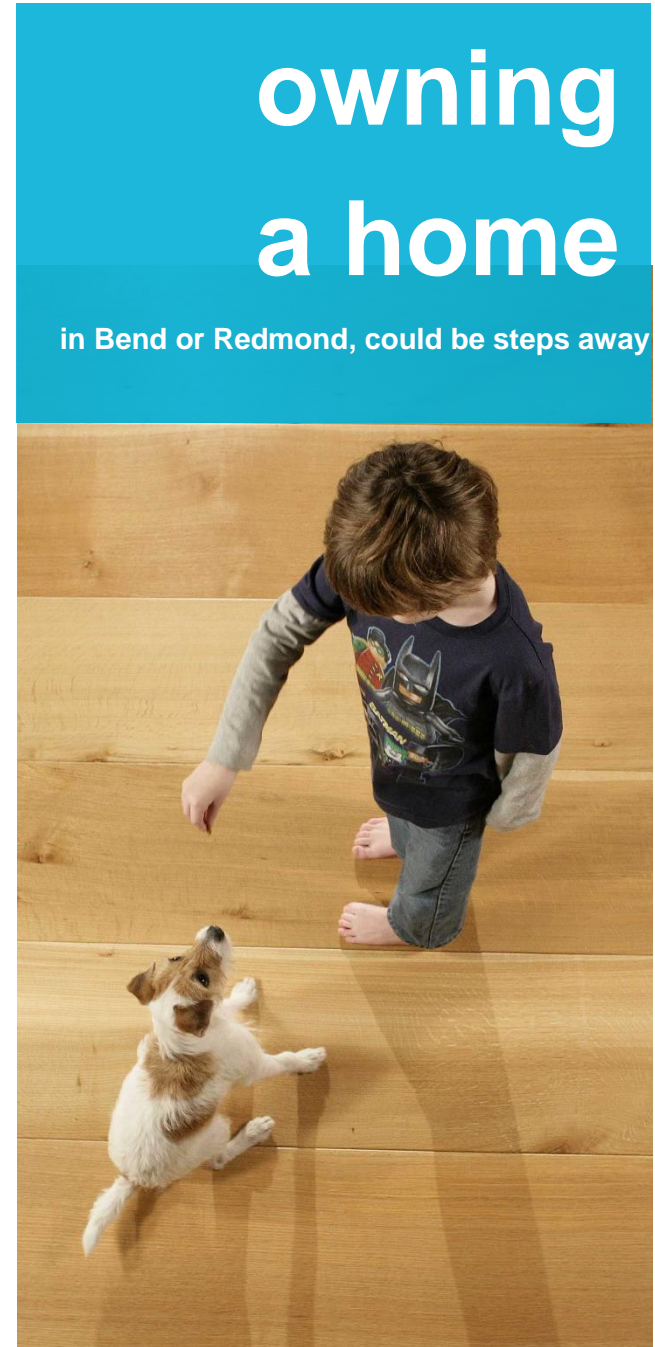

vision

a world where everyone has a decent place to live

mission

seeking to put God's love into action, Habitat for Humanity brings people together to build homes, communities and hope

Bend-Redmond Habitat is dedicated to providing affordable homeownership opportunities for families and individuals in Bend and Redmond.

owning a home

in Bend or Redmond, could be steps away

eligibility

NEED

- Must live or work in Bend or Redmond for at least 1 year
- Need for improved housing conditions
- High housing cost vs. household income

ABILITY TO PAY

- Household must meet the current income guidelines (see table)
- Have steady source of income (from employment, disability, social security etc.) for 2 years. If self-employed; 3 years of tax returns
- Debt-to-Income ratio below 12% (includes deferred school loans)
- Minimum credit score of 620
- If bankruptcy: 4 years from discharge, 5 years if short sale, 7 years from foreclosure
- Able to save at least $2,000 for closing costs
- No collections or judgments
- Primary applicant must have proof of legal residency

WILLINGNESS TO PARTNER

- Volunteer 150 hours, "sweat equity", per adult in the household, plus secure 100 donated hours
- Commit to homeownership education classes and regular meetings with Habitat Staff
- Accept location of a decent and affordable home in Bend or Redmond
- Promote Habitat in the community
- Pledge to maintain and repair your home after purchase, and make house payments on time
- Complete three post-purchase workshops

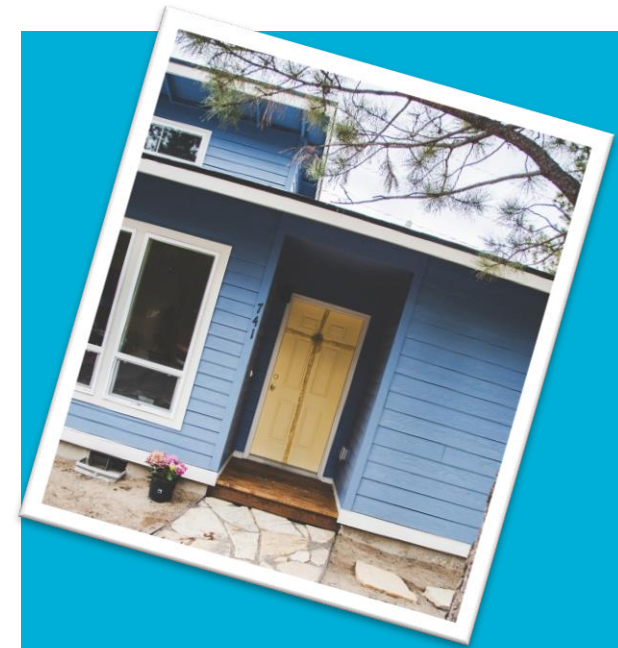

2020 income guidelines

Household Size	Minimum Eligible Borrower Income	Maximum Household Income (80% AMI)
1	$ 30,000	$ 42,850
per mo.	$ 2,500	$ 3,571
2	$ 30,000	$ 49,000
per mo.	$ 2,500	$ 4,083
3	$ 30,000	$ 55,100
per mo.	$ 2,500	$ 4,592
4	$ 30,600	$ 61,200
per mo.	$ 2,550	$ 5,100
5	$ 33,080	$ 66,100
per mo.	$ 2,757	$ 5,508
6	$ 35,520	$ 71,040
per mo.	$ 2,960	$ 5,920
7	$ 37,960	$ 75,900
per mo.	$ 3,163	$ 6,325
8	$ 40,400	$ 80,800
per mo.	$ 3,367	$ 6,733

Income based on total household gross income (before taxes) up to 80% of the Area Median Income for Bend/Redmond. The income requirements are subject to annual revision as established by HUD and Habitat.

5 steps to homeownership

- 1 attend an information session
- 2 schedule intake appointment
- 3 submit habitat program application
- 4 get selected to partner with habitat
- 5 apply for affordable home loan

Features of a typical Habitat Home:

- 1-2 bathrooms
- 18 ft³ refrigerator (white)
- 30" gas range stove (white)
- Exhaust hood
- Xeriscaping
- Laundry room
- Tank-less water heater
- Double-pane windows
- Window coverings for all bedrooms
- ADA Access (if required)
- Affordable utilities (moving toward Net Zero homes)

► inquire today

Visit our website and send us an inquiry form:

<https://brhabitat.org/homeownership/homeowner-inquiry-form/>